SEVEN SEAS CRUISES

The Regent Seven Seas Mariner

A six-star ship with all suites, all balconies, and all-inclusive pricing
Seven Seas Mariner is the world's first all-suite, all-balcony ship, as well as the first to offer dining by the famed Le Cordon Bleu of Paris in Signatures, one of four single, open-seating restaurants. Catering to only 700 guests, she is one of the most spacious cruise ships afloat. Her staff to guest ratio of 1 to 1.6 provides the highest level of personal service in the six-star tradition of Regent Seven Seas Cruises.

All suites feature private balconies, European king-size beds convertible to twins, Anichini linens and feather-down duvets, a separate sitting area and marble-appointed bathroom with full bathtub and shower. There is a walk-in closet with safe; Anichini robes and cotton slippers; hair dryer; interactive TV, CD/DVD player; and refrigerator replenished daily with soft drinks, beer and bottled water. Wheelchair-accessible and triple suites are available.

Special On-Board Activities

With one of the highest space ratios at sea, Seven Seas Mariner offers an unusual array of pleasurable pastimes including some activities rarely available even in the finest resorts on land. Contract bridge, complimentary computer classes, art auctions and classes in ballroom dancing are just a few activities available for you.

Guest Lecturers

In addition to Hillsdale's special Seminars-at-Sea, Regent presents a variety of informal talks or slide shows about the unique places you'll be visiting.

Sports Activities, Pool and Whirlpool

Deck 12 is devoted to sports with golf cages, shuffleboard, paddle tennis and a full-circle jogging track. One flight down, the teak pool deck, one of the most expansive at sea, includes a large heated pool, two whirlpools, table tennis, and a Pool Bar and Grill.

Other Diversions

Additional options include art auctions and a library well stocked with books, DVDs and assorted games. There are duty-free boutiques and a Photo Shop with film and camera equipment. Every afternoon, high tea, accompanied by fresh scones and other delicacies, is served in the Horizon Lounge.
