Alaska – The Last Frontier A Cruise and Land Adventure!

June 22 – July 3, 2007

From North America's tallest mountain to thundering tidewater glaciers – and all the Alaska wildlife and Native culture in-between – this program encompasses the BEST of Alaska.

Set sail with Holland America for your journey from Vancouver to Seward, gliding through glacier territory along the way. Breathtaking scenery, including snow-capped peaks and rugged, forested shores await passengers in Hubbard Glacier and throughout the Inside Passage. See the sights in the historic town of Sitka, perched at the edge of the Tongass National Forest. Then visit Juneau, Alaska's picturesque capital. Make a stop in Ketchikan, where quaint stilted houses and an abundant supply of salmon delight visitors before experiencing the awe-inspiring vistas of the Inside Passage. Soak up Alaska's stunning scenery, including Mt. McKinley at 20,320 feet, gawk at glaciers, and view roaming wildlife in the six million acre Denali National Park.

Eight-Day Cruise Includes (June 22 – 29):

- Holland America's Volendam, cruising the Inside Passage from Vancouver, Canada to Seward, Alaska (Departs at 5:00 pm on June 22nd)
